

I enjoy satellite radio. I still listen to some local programing but when the commercials come on I turn the sound down on local radio. It's my right to elect to pay for programing I want to hear in the car I paid for. Competition is the soul of better products, services and choices. I would be very displeased to have my rights tramped on.